[Blue Houdini] "began as relatives annoying each other with their music, who then, decided to annoy the masses by playing in public" -Isaac Martinez..... Blue Houdini is made up of two Central TX well-known musicians Sammy Colunga and Isaac Martinez, as well as siblings Ed and Chris Reyes. It is a blend of groove, blues, rock, and soul cover music peppered with tasty originals and twists on old favorites. Performances are rare due to the schedules of everyone in the band. Isaac and Sammy play in a number of bands in and around Central TX and Ed's availability is sparse since his job has him traveling from coast-to-coast weeks at a time..... But if you DO get to catch 'em "get ready to shake your money maker!"

8:00 pm "Groupo Impecable" All of us grow up listening to regional mexican music, we were inspired by watching local bands playing and being around tex-mex music. Wanting to keeping our cultural roots alive through music became our passion. In early 2007 we decided to form a band and started playing in small gigs like backyard parties, then we moved up to clubs by the end of the year. Alonso Rios (Accordion/First Voice), Charlie Rios (Drums), Juan Acosta (Bass Guitar), Jose Lopez (Bajo Sexto/Second Voice) together we are "Groupo Impecable". We play music to live and live to play music.

8:30 pm The Programmars are a rock/garage style band consisting of TSTC students Will Campbell (Vocals and Guitar) Chris Bolton (Drums) and Casey Weaver (Bass and backing vocals).

Chris Bolton met Will through a mutual friend in Denton, Tx, where the band started. After Will moved to Waco in the summer '10, The programmars decided to add a bassist (Casey Weaver) and started writing music. The band has recorded an eight track lo-fi ep titled "The Pro-Grammar EP" which is available for

9:00 pm CAKE IN THE HALL - With members from California, New Mexico, and Texas, this band rocks with a combined unique blend of folk, rock, and blues to create a very unique style. They cover songs from the past as well as present-day artists, with a dash of original music. The lyrics and vocal harmonies of Cake In The Hall will follow you home and stick in your head. Daniel Pacheco - Guitar, Vocals

Channon Quillen - Guitar, Vocals, Harmonica, Wes Wells - Bass, Guitar, Vocals, Frank Exum - Lead Guitar, Vocals, Tab Ledbetter – Drums

9:30 pm (Jason Carter) Untucked – modern pop rock group

10:00 pm 56 Seconds – 56 Seconds is a alternative rock band formed in Waco Texas. The founding members are lead vocalist and guitarist J.R. Ahlers, and drummer Barret Robinson. The band's first bassist was Jake Tunmire, who quit and was replaced by James Midwood. The band played it's first show, with Midwood, on May 29, 2010 at Common Grounds. Midwood quit soon after to be replaced by the current bassist, Austin Green. After Green joined, a new lead guitarist, Tyler Downing joined. The band's current lineup consists of Barret Robinson, J.R. Ahlers, Tyler Downing, and Austin Green. The band is currently playing shows in the central Texas area, and is looking for opportunities to play.
