

Resume of Rolando Saenz
P. O. Box 6285, Waco, Texas 76706
(254) 723-6950

Objectives: To open a sculpture studio in Waco, to continue work in monumental art and design, and to foster recognition of memorial art.

Personal: Born in Realitos, Texas, 1955
Children: Chris and Sommer Saenz
Granddaughter: Sara Nicole Saenz

Education: Texas A & I University , 1975-1977, BFA
Del Mar College, 1973- 1975

Work Experience: Dietz Memorial, Memorial design, Sculpture and Sales, 1985 -Present
South Plains Monuments, Lubbock, Texas, 1980-1984
Barrera Monument Company, Corpus Christi, Texas, 1978-1980

Featured Works: Marble Boy, Oakwood Cemetery, Waco, Texas, 2000
Hoggatt Bay Aircraft Carrier, Jacksonville, Texas, 2001
Confusion in The Garden, 2000
The Last Supper, Realitos Cemetery (featured in European Associated Teachers www.eat-.net), 1994

Portfolio on request

Artist's Statement

Blood Feather is a tribute to all the people of Waco, Texas, beginning with the Huaco Indians and including all backgrounds and ethnic groups. Blood feather means living feather, suggesting transformation and renewal.